

THE FIRM STORY

Johnson & Associates was initially formed out of a necessity to provide exceptional legal services at a valued price point. Aside from our commitment to our clients, we also have a relentless commitment to giving back to our local communities. We strongly believe rebuilding and empowering our local communities will act as a catalyst for growth and prosperity for all. Adrian Johnson, founding partner, has been heavily involved in business and civic duties since a young age. Mr. Johnson's father, served in the United States Air Force for all of Mr. Johnson's childhood. While traveling with his father, Mr. Johnson lived internationally for most of those years. Mr. Johnson's childhood experiences were influenced by his experiences living abroad in the Republic of the Philippines, the Republic of Panama and Germany. It is this very diverse background and outlook that form the base of Mr. Johnson's belief system and sense of civil responsibility to mankind.

After graduating high school in Germany, Mr. Johnson embarked upon his collegiate opportunities. Mr. Johnson received his Bachelors of Science in Business Administration with a focus in Computer Information Systems, and his Master of Finance and International Business from Auburn University in Alabama. It would not be long after receiving his Masters degree, that Mr. Johnson would enroll in law school. Mr. Johnson received his Juris Doctorate degree from Rutgers School of Law-Newark.

Aside from Mr. Johnson's educational accomplishments, he has experienced equal accomplishments in his professional endeavors. Mr. Johnson spent many years working in the following industries: financial services, insurance services, publishing, chemical, entertainment, and logistics / supply / warehousing. Mr. Johnson serviced companies such as Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Ora Pharma, Automatic Data Processing, Inc., Fenway Partners Private Equity, BASF Corporation, News Corporation, Dow Jones & Company, Inc., Metropolitan Life, and Regions Financial Corporation. Mr. Johnson served in various different capacities from finance strategy to executive management. Mr. Johnson has managed assets up to $1 billion.

From Mr. Johnson's vast array of life experiences, education accomplishments, and career opportunities, Johnson & Associates was born. Mr. Johnson believed he could address the ongoing concern that only the very wealthy (whether business or individuals) have access to superb legal services. Mr. Johnson believed he could provide exceptional legal services at a valued price point, addressing this going concern. Johnson & Associates embodies this commitment to community and to our clients.
