

BUSINESS & CORPORATE LAW

Johnson & Associates is committed to providing a wide depth of services in our Business and Corporate law practice. Our firm has successfully represented small-to-medium-size businesses as well as corporations. We understand the ever-changing landscape of the business world and are equipped to quickly adapt and keep clients on track towards organizational goals.

Our firm's Partner, Adrian J. Johnson, Esq., has been providing guidance to organizations both large and small for many years. Through his extensive knowledge, he has been able to assist organizations in achieving their full potential.

He has been instrumental in the start-up phase of small organizations, as well as down the road during the more mature periods of organizational growth that larger businesses and corporations face.

